

Participant comments from Jeff Mowatt's Managing Multiple Priorities presentation held November 7th, 2007

“Jeff’s session was great - very uplifting and inspiring. It will help with choosing the proper priorities.”

Bev Sasynuik, RGM

“It was a great presentation. It will impact me a lot. I do not use an organizer and I need to start. It will help me prioritize everything I do day to day.”

Marvin Walcott, RGM

“Everything was great. Excellent advice. It will help me be more organized and help me get through a better everyday – so I can live a better lifestyle – at work and outside of work.”

Askhika Dewan, RGM

“Jeff’s presentation was great! I believe this session will impact my employees when I start to apply the priority values (the Quad concept), thus impacting our customers and the business.”

Sharon San Luis, RGM

“Very engaging and interesting. This will help me get more organized and become more of a leader than a manager.”

Maniha Umar, Restaurant manager

“This will impact me as manager and as a member of my family. It will help me plan and be more organized at work and at home.”

Ekta Thaker, Assistant Rest. Manager

“This session helped me understand how to be a more effective manager of time, employees and customer service. It has given me the tools to lead a less stressful life, at work and at home.”

David Taylor, Assistant General Manager

“This will help with prioritizing and planning. I feel that my multitasking should stop and I should do one task at a time and things get more proactively.”

Tina Augustynowicz, RGM
